

THE DELRAY JAZZ COLLECTIVE

Classic Rock Meets Jazz!

For this exciting show, the DJC mines its collective roots in the music of the 60s and 70s, channeling this wondrous music through the great American improvisatory art form of jazz. With chops, soul, and a dedicated spirit, the group will head on a genre bending musical journey, sure to take the audience to a place where nostalgia meets the present, giving renewed meaning and relevance to a music that has so deeply touched generations of fans.

Some of the music visited will include the songs of the Beatles, Joni Mitchell, The Allman Brothers, the Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd, Creedence Clearwater Revival, Yes, Emerson, Lake and Palmer, and others . . . Like you've never heard!
